

NBCC PROFESSIONAL IDENTITY AWARD

for Counselor Education Programs

Could your department use $5,000?

Well, you're in luck! Once again, the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC) is offering up to three $5,000 Professional Identity Awards to counselor education programs for exemplary work in preparing qualified counselors and commitment to professional identity.

Interested in nominating your department?

We've included the official nomination form below.

The deadline for nominations is January 15, 2011.

Recipients of the 2010 NBCC Professional Identity Awards will be announced March 15, 2011.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

NBCC PROFESSIONAL IDENTITY AWARD

for Counselor Education Programs

NOMINATION FORM

Counselor Education Program Information

Program Name: _____

University Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Telephone: _____ Web site: _____

Our Program submits data for Counselor Preparation. YES NO

NBCC Professional Identity Award Eligibility Criteria

Eligibility for the Professional Identity Award is based on the following faculty and program attributes.

Faculty

1. Percentage of full-time faculty who are National Certified Counselors—list names.
2. Faculty efforts to promote professional identity (e.g., conference presentations).
3. Leadership within counseling-related professional associations in the past five years (e.g., board member).
4. Local counseling-related community involvement (e.g., pro bono services).

Program

1. CACREP accredited? YES NO
2. Student involvement in professional identity activities (e.g., Chi Sigma Iota chapter).
3. Other program features or initiatives that enhance professional identity (e.g., student publications).

Nominator Information

Full Name of Faculty Member: _____

Title and University Affiliation: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Telephone: _____ E-mail: _____

Mail completed nomination form and supporting documents to:

National Board for Certified Counselors,
Attn: Professional Identity Award Selection Committee
3 Terrace Way
Greensboro, NC 27403

Questions?
Contact us at nbcc@nbcc.org